Early Bird Performance PE Class: All varsity wrestlers are expected to enroll in the EB PPE class. Freshmen and JV are highly encouraged to take PPE 1st period. We will be using this time for conditioning and strength training. Outside of wrestling season you are encouraged to take PPE as well.

Attendance at Practices: Because time is so important in developing a strong wrestling team, each wrestler must maintain his responsibility to each team member by attending all practices. Any wrestler, who misses a practice, without being excused ahead of time, will be subject to discipline or dismissal from the squad according to judgment of the coaching staff.

Eligibility: To be eligible to wrestle you must have passed all of your classes (or you will sit out 30 days), and be passing a minimum of 20 hrs. during the winter term. Your success in the classroom and on the mat sends a valuable message to your teachers, classmates, and friends. Remember, you represent your family, the wrestling team, the coaches, and Jefferson.

Skin Infection: We wish to minimize if not eliminate it from our wrestling room. To combat this problem you must carry the bulk of the responsibility. The following items are team expectations that must be fulfilled if we are to keep our room clear.

- You must shower with soap following each practice and competition.
- Always wear clean clothes into the wrestling room.
- Wash your headgear, kneepads, and shoes daily. Especially after competition.
- Never, ever leave dirty clothes in your locker.
- Carry your dirty clothes home in a plastic bag, so as not to contaminate your gear bag.
- Always notify a coach if you suspect that you or a teammate has a possible infection.
- Never wrestle on the mats with a possible skin infection.
- Never wear the same clothes twice without washing them.

Mandatory Body Composition Testing: All H.S. wrestlers must have their body composition tested by approved testing personnel before their first day of competition. You must pass a mandatory hydration test prior to being able to get your body composition tested. October 29th and November 12th at 7am and 3pm in the Lower Locker Room

Program Goals

Goal Number One---Academic Success

All wrestlers will realize their academic success by aiming high, show constant improvement, and carry the work ethic learned from the mat into classroom.

Goal Number Two---Wrestling Success

All wrestlers will achieve their greatest potential in athletic performance, and by doing so, they would not only contribute to their own success as a high school wrestler, but to the overall success of their wrestling team as well. The team will be known as a prestigious winning program.

Goal Number Three---Personal Growth

All wrestlers will realize maturity and perfection in their personal virtues---character traits---attitudes and habits. Each wrestler should work hard, stay positive, and achieve. If this happens, we are all winners. We want everyone to mature, develop self-confidence, and become a better person through learning self-discipline, cooperation, integrity, and teamwork.

Coaching Philosophy

Our philosophy is to see each wrestler reach their potential mentally, physically, and academically to increase the participation of wrestling in our community. With participation from parents, coaching staff, and student-athletes, J-Hawk Wrestling will flourish!

What does it take to be on the J-Hawk wrestling team?

First, you must be willing to pay the price for wrestling on a great wrestling team! To wrestle on this winning team, you must commit to every practice session and match. Only good conditioning can give you the feeling of confidence and the physical ability necessary to go all out. Each and every rule plays a definitive role in attempting to achieve standards of conduct and in producing winning teams. Our standard of excellence applies to all parts of your life:

BLAME NO ONE
EXPECT NOTHING
DO SOMETHING

Second, you as a wrestler cannot do some of the things other students do! To be on a championship team, you have to be a champion yourself and be willing to "pay the price" of keeping strict training rules. Wrestling is not compulsory but rather for those people who want to be a wrestler and abide by our rules. You and your actions represent the city, the school, the coaching staff, your parents, all of your peers, and the team.

Third, the following qualities are desirable and worth striving for on the part of J-Hawk Wrestlers:

- Character: "Be more concerned with your character than your reputation, because your character is what you really are, while reputation is merely what others think you are". (John Wooden)
- "A (wrestler) must be dependable and consistent, regardless of the time or place. Be it the opening whistle or the final 30 seconds. . Character, as much as physical ability, is vital". (Calvin Hill)
- Class: "Class is being honest - both with others and with yourself. Class is treating others, as you would like them to treat you". (Jack Nicholas)
- "There is no mat space for malcontents or dissenters. One must neither celebrate insanely when he wins, nor sulk when he loses. He accepts victory professionally and humbly; he hates defeat, but makes no poor display of it". (Dan Gable)
- Commitment: "The important thing in life is to try to be your best. Be honest with yourself, your family, your friends, and your community. An honest commitment means 100 percent. It means loyalty, and it means being able to be counted on in the clutch". (Joe Paterno)
- "A man can be as great as he wants to be. If you believe in yourself and have the courage, the determination, the dedication, the competitive drive and, if you are willing, to sacrifice the little things that are worthwhile, it can be done. Once a man has made a commitment to a way of life, he puts the greatest strength in the world behind him. It's something we call heart power. Once a man has made his commitment, nothing will stop him short of success". (Vince Lombardi)
- Courage: "Courage is not how a man stands or falls, but how he gets back up again". (Joe Lewis)
- "Courage is the first of human qualities, because it is the quality, which guarantees all others". (Winston Churchill)

Fourth, practice attendance.

- Wrestlers will be suitably dressed and ready for practice at 3:20 pm.
- If a wrestler is late for practice, the individual or team may have extra conditioning at the end of practice, which will be determined by the coaches.
- Wrestlers should be expected to make up lost practice time whether or not the missed practice was excused or unexcused.
- Unexcused Absence – The wrestler has no reason for missing practice. Exception: parent note, illness, unexpected emergency, school related activity.
- If you are absent from school you may not attend practice or a scheduled competition. If you attend four classes you will be considered in attendance.

Team Expectations: Just Do Right

Live an honorable life. Do what is right and avoid what is wrong. These rules are based on common sense and civility.

1. Arrive promptly at team activities
2. Obey the coaches
3. Maintain academic standards
4. Behave with dignity
5. Be honest

In other words, we ask you to behave like responsible adults. We are simply asking you to do things right the first time. We are not into guilt or huge amounts of discipline. Our discipline goal is to inflict short-term pain to lead you to a long-term gain. It is not our decision to discipline it is yours. The choice is simple; you need to choose to "Do Right". Champions don't complain about restrictions, they take pride in them. They understand their willingness to sacrifice, places them in that rare breed of individual who will do whatever is necessary to attain goals.

A CHAMPION is a person that gives every thing they have to fulfill a goal.
Notice it does not say win!! Winning is simply the by-product of doing things right!

Points to Remember

1. Get to practice early. 15 minutes is plenty of time to dress and weigh-in. Practice starts 20 minutes after school ends. If all are here on time we all leave on time. Headgear should be worn during practice. Practice starts at 3:20 p.m.
2. EXTRA DRILLING OF MOVES should be done at least every other day. DRILL FOR PERFECTION. Extra efforts give you the edge over your competitors.
3. Practice of technique is essential. When you get in the wrestling room, work at something, which will make you better.
4. Never miss practice. If you are temporarily injured, go to the wrestling room anyway. Check in with the coaching staff before you visit the athletic trainer. If you must miss practice, inform the head coach.
5. Record weight daily before and after practice.
6. SHOWER EVERY DAY IMMEDIATELY AFTER PRACTICE.
7. Keep your gear clean.
8. Keep your locker locked. You are responsible for all gear issued to you.
9. Remember your actions before, during and after wrestling matches are a direct reflection on our team.
10. Show up one half hour before departure time for any meets or tournaments. Do not eat meats or sugared drinks prior to events.
11. Develop a desire for winning, strive for excellence, train faithfully and believe in yourself.

CERTIFYING MINIMUM WRESTLING WEIGHT CLASS

Wrestlers must certify their minimum wrestling weight class (certified weight class), by making scratch weight* in that weight class at least one time. (Scratch weight must be actual scale weight WITHOUT the addition of any kind of scale allowance.*) If a coach enters an actual scale weight from a weigh-in into the NWCA Optimal Performance Calculator, the weigh-in counts as an official weigh-in and also count towards the wrestler's 15 date limitation. Wrestlers must be eligible in all regards before their coach allows them to weigh-in for any weigh-in. Wrestlers weighing in and not eligible in all regards will not be allowed to count the weigh-in as scratch weight and they, and their coach, will be subject to further sanctions by their school and the Athletic Association. Wrestlers not certifying their minimum weight class before their first post-season competition must weigh-in at scratch weight for that competition. They will receive the growth allowance at all future weigh-ins.

GROWTH ALLOWANCE

Wrestlers who have certified their minimum weight class before January 1 will receive the 2-pound growth allowance after January 1. Wrestlers who have not certified their minimum weight class by January 1 will receive the growth allowance the first time they weigh-in after certifying. The first time a wrestler uses the growth allowance they declare their certified weight class and their intent not to wrestle at a lower weight class. A wrestler CANNOT recertify at a weight class below their certified weight class, regardless of what weight class their body composition assessment and/or descent plan allows them to go. For example, a wrestler's body composition assessment will allow him to wrestle at the 132# weight class. He makes scratch weight at 138 pounds before January 1. Then in the first meet after January 1 uses the growth allowance to weigh-in for the 138# weight class. He cannot recertify at 132 pounds because he used the growth allowance for the first time at the 138# weight class and declared his intent NOT to wrestle below the 138# weight class.

WEIGHT LOSS DESCENT PLAN

All wrestlers losing weight are limited to an average weight loss of 1.5% per week beginning the Monday of the week their body composition is assessed. The descent plan will be monitored as follows:

A. Before each weigh-in session, coaches must provide a Weight Management Reporting Form to the Administrator of Weigh-Ins, or their designee. This form will show the weight classes for which every wrestler is eligible to weigh in on that date without causing their descent plan to be recalculated.

B. A wrestler is NOT eligible to wrestle at a weight class below the minimum weight class determined by their descent plan regardless of their actual weight. Rule 4.4.2 states, "A contestant shall not wrestle more than one weight class above that class for which the actual weight, at the time of weigh-in, qualifies the competitor." If a wrestler whose lowest eligible weight class for a given week according to the descent plan is 138 pounds weighs in for the 126# weight class, or less, the wrestler is not eligible to compete at any weight class in that meet because of Rule 4.4.2.

2. A wrestler cannot weigh-in above their highest eligible weight class listed for a specific date without having his/her descent plan recalculated IMMEDIATELY (beginning at 12:01am the next day). For example, a wrestler's highest eligible weight class listed on the weight management form for a specific date is 138 pounds. If the wrestler weighs in excess of 145 pounds (147 with the growth allowance) their descent plan will be IMMEDIATELY (beginning at 12:01am the next day) recalculated by the NWCA OPC. They will not be able to compete again at 145 pounds, or below, until their descent plan allows them to.

NWCA On Line Optimal Performance Calculator:

The coaches will give you information on how wrestlers can access the Optimal Performance Calculator after you have had your body comp. testing.

Varsity Wrestling Letter Award (250 points required)

1. Attendance & Attitude:

25 points must be earned by prompt and constant attendance at practice throughout the season. Nutritional Guide for Wrestlers

Fat Loss – How Much? How Long?

When dieting or trying to put on size and muscle, we must be concerned with proper nutrition as well as the caloric content of food.

ASSESSING YOUR BODY'S CALORIC NEEDS

The first process in weight reduction (or gain/ maintenance) is determining how many calories are required to maintain your present body weight. The following formula will give you the approximate number of calories needed to maintain your present body weight.

➔ Resting energy needs = Average of 1 calorie per Kg of body weight per hour ←

- 1) Divide your body weight in pounds by 2.2. This equals your weight in Kilo grams (Kg). (To be extremely precise, it is 2.2046 pounds to one kilogram)
- 2) Multiply your body weight in Kg by 24 hours. This value equals your resting energy needs. (Calories needed to maintain body weight if you did nothing all day.)
- 3) Multiply your resting energy needs by .4. (This allows for daily activity.)
- 4) Add the above value to your resting energy needs. This is your Daily Requirement for calories.
- 5) Add 1,000 calories to your Daily Requirement when performing two hours of wrestling activity.

Example of Assessing Your Body Caloric Needs:

In this example, assume the calorie needs of a wrestler weighing 150 pounds are being calculated.

- 1) 150 pounds ÷ 2.2 = 68 Kg. (Body weight in Kilograms)
- 2) 68 Kg. X 24 = 1,632 calories (Resting energy needs)
- 3) 1,632 x .4 = 653 (Calories needed for daily activity)
- 4) 1,632 + 653 = 2,285 calories (Daily Requirement for Calories when performing two hours of wrestling activity.)

RECORD YOUR DAILY CALORIE NEEDS BELOW:

1.	Body Weight	÷ 2.2	=	Body Weight in Kg
2.	Weight in Kg	× 24	=	Resting energy needs
3.	Resting Energy Needs	× .4	=	Calories needed for daily activity
4.	Resting Energy Needs	+	Calories Needed for daily activity	=	Daily Requirement for Calories
5.	_____ + add 1000 calories to your diet for 2 hours of vigorous wrestling activity = _____

ASSESSING YOUR PROTEIN NEEDS

➔ Foods used for maintenance, repair, and growth of muscle ➔

It is very essential that the proper amount of protein be consumed each day to avoid loss of lean body mass (muscles, tissues, etc.). Thus, it is essential that during weight reduction protein requirements be met. The following formula will allow you to determine the amount of protein needed to avoid loss of muscle tissue.

- 1) Divide your body weight in pounds by 2.2. This value equals your weight in Kg.
- 2) For every Kg. Of body weight you need 1 gram of protein.
- 3) The largest amount of protein consumed at one meal should not exceed 30 grams. Space your protein intake over two or three meals.
- 4) Excellent sources of protein are meat, eggs, and milk.

Example of Assessing Your Protein Needs:

In this example assume the protein needs of a wrestler weighing 150 pounds.

- 1) $150 \text{ pounds} \div 2.2 = 68.18 \text{ Kg.}$
- 2) $68.18 \text{ Kg.} \times 1 \text{ gram} = 68 \text{ (Avg.) grams of protein per day}$
- 3) $68 \text{ grams of protein per day} \div 30 \text{ grams per meal} = 2.2 \text{ meals of 30 grams of protein to meet your needs.}$

ASSESSING YOUR CARBOHYDRATE NEEDS

➔ Foods used for production of energy ➔

Carbohydrates play an essential role in supplying the body energy needed to produce work. Carbohydrates will be the greatest amount of food type consumed. The diet should contain about 65% carbohydrates. To determine the amount of carbohydrates you need, subtract the number of calories in the protein foods you eat from your daily intake. The result is the amount of calories you should eat in the form of carbohydrates.

SUMMARY OF CALORIES, PROTEINS, AND CARBOHYDRATES NEEDED

Before weight reduction begins, we must first determine:

- 1) The amount of calories we need to maintain our present weight.
- 2) How much protein is needed to avoid muscle loss?
- 3) How many carbohydrates are required to supply needed energy?

SUPPLEMENT INTAKE

Sports performance may increase the demands for certain vitamins, especially when weight reduction is required.

Fat-soluble vitamins such as Vitamins A, D, E and K need not be supplemented if a balanced diet is followed. When participating in vigorous activity, water-soluble vitamins such as Vitamins C and B complex should be supplemented if large amounts of fruits and breads cannot be eaten due to weight reduction.

Vitamins are very important because they promote the absorption of iron from non-meat food sources. After a vigorous workout, Vitamins C and B complex should be supplemented.

- I like to recommend for all my athletes to supplement in their diet a multi vitamin, like Centrum for example. Which can be purchased very cheaply at Wal-Mart.

LOSING FAT

So far we have talked about the amount of calories, foods, and vitamins needed to maintain body weight. To lose fat, we must be concerned with the amount of calories we consume. The amount of food stuffs (protein or carbohydrates) consumed is adjusted to your calorie restrictions and weight loss.

As your body weight is lowered, the amount of protein per Kg. Of weight will also be lowered. Thus, as you lower your body weight you should re-adjust your protein and carbohydrate intake.

INTAKE VERSUS OUTPUT

Weight reduction (fat loss) is governed by the following, simple principle:

To lose weight \Leftrightarrow Intake (calories consumed) must be less than output (calories used). You must consume fewer calories than you burn off.

Another way of expressing this is:

$$\text{Output} > \text{Intake}$$

FAT AND CALORIES

How many calories must be either burned or restricted to lose one (1) pound of fat?

1 pound of fat = 3,500 calories. In order to lose 1 pound of fat weight, you must burn up 3,500 calories or restrict your intake over a period of time by 3,500 calories.

So Plan Ahead

It takes 3,500 calories to lose 1 pound of fat. The caloric restriction of 3500 must be divides into days. It is highly recommended that no more than 2 pounds of fat be lost per week.

Subtracting 500 calories from the normal number of calories it would take to maintain your weight, will allow one pound of fat loss per week.

Subtracting 700 calories and running 3 miles a day will allow 2 pounds of fat loss per week. (For every mile you run, an average of 100 calories will be used.)
